

Take Time to Treasure

Nov/Dec 2017

As the year comes to a close, we reflect on how we have performed in the last 10 months. Not everything would have gone according to plan. As with everything in life, we would have had the satisfying moments as well as the challenging ones.

While the satisfying and happy moments create memories for us, it is the challenging times that we will probably learn the most from. In our final reflection for the year, we were reminded to Take Time To Treasure (T4). So spend the holidays taking the time to treasure people we have encountered, the beautiful moments, the success stories and the personal accomplishments.

However, it is interesting to note that resilience and tenacity is created from the difficulties and problems we face. And through these complications, we grow and learn. That is where T3 is relevant and useful- we need to be anchored in Tradition, grow through the Transitions and finally rise through the Transformation.

As you plan for the next journey in 2018, ask yourself, what personal goals you have for yourself and what you need to do to achieve them. After reflecting on the need for change, take the necessary steps to improve yourself so you can reap the fruit of your hard work in 2018. Wishing all of you a fruitful and restful year-end break. Make good use of your time and come back refreshed with renewed zest and energy.
